

Please consider the environment before printing this eTicket. Cathay Pacific does not require its passengers to present paper copies of their eTickets at check in. Unless one of the airport authorities of your departure city or transit points specifically requires you to present a paper copy of your eTicket to enter an airport, we recommend that you do not print your eTicket.

Data Protection Notice: Your personal data will be processed in accordance with the applicable carrier's privacy policy and, if your booking is made via a reservation system provider (GDS), with its privacy policy. These are available at www.iatatravelcenter.com/privacy or from the carrier or GDS directly. You should read this documentation, which applies to your booking and specifies, for example, how your personal data is collected, stored, used, disclosed and transferred (applicable for interline carriage).

eTicket Reminders

- (1) It is the responsibility of passengers to ensure that their travel documents are valid and that they hold all necessary visas and medical certificates for entry into their destination. We reserve the right to refuse carriage if passengers fail to comply with such requirements. We will not be liable for any loss or expenses incurred by the passenger as a result of the passenger being refused entry into their destination.
- (2) Tickets must be used in sequence. If you fail to fly on a booked flight and you do not notify us, all onward and connecting bookings will be cancelled. In some countries, a no-show charge may also be collected. Please cancel your reservations if you do not intend to fly.
 - (a) For tickets purchased in Italy: in case of non-use, for any reason, of the outgoing flight (or of a segment of the outgoing flight, or a segment of the return flight), the request to maintain the successive segments of the ticket may only be accepted if prior communication has been made to Cathay Pacific, contacting the Contact Centre on the following number: 800791720 (or from abroad, +39 0299953954) or via email: customerservice_italy@cathaypacific.com which will be followed by a confirmation of receipt, within the time specified below:
 - (i) within 24 hours after the departure of the unused flight; or
 - (ii) if the departure of the next segment is within 24 hours of the unused flight, the communication to the Contact Centre must be received at least 2 hours before the departure of the aforementioned next segment of the flight.
 - (b) The Contact Center will issue a new electronic ticket with the modified itinerary, and the passenger will be able to check-in online (if available) or at the airport. If the passenger does not make the aforementioned communication, or makes it after the above terms as indicated, subject to the seat availability on the next segment and subsequent flights, Cathay Pacific reserves the right to request payment of an amount equal to the difference between the price paid for the original ticket and the highest fare in the same class/ travel compartment, applicable to the modified itinerary at the time the ticket is reissued, except in the case where the fare rules of the original ticket are more favourable for the passenger which will then be applied.
- (3) The time shown on the flight coupon or itinerary receipt is the departure time of the aircraft. Passengers should allow sufficient time to complete all the formalities and it is recommended that passengers arrive at the airport one and a half hours before the departure time, at the latest. Cathay Pacific check-in counters normally close 40 minutes prior to the scheduled departure time, however, closing time may vary slightly at some airports. Passengers arriving after this time may not be accepted for travel and no responsibility will be accepted by us in such cases. Please check with your local Cathay Pacific Office shown at www.cathaypacific.com/cx/en_HK/contact-us.html, as rules and check-in times vary by country and airport.
- (4) To minimise any disruption to your travel plan, please note the boarding gate will be closed 10 minutes before departure time. Late passengers may not be accepted for travel. Please arrive at the boarding gate at least 30 minutes before departure time to reserve sufficient time for boarding formalities.
- (5) Cathay Pacific and most major airlines may overbook services. While Cathay Pacific makes every effort to provide seats for confirmed reservations made, we cannot guarantee seat availability. Cathay Pacific operates compensation schemes, in accordance with the applicable law and our compensation policy, to passengers with confirmed reservations who are denied carriage because of overbooking.
- (6) This ticket is valid for carriage for one year from the date of issue, except as otherwise provided in this ticket, in our fare rules, in carrier tariffs, conditions of carriage or related regulations.

Advice to international passengers on limitations of liability: Passengers embarking upon a journey are advised that the provisions of an international treaty (the Warsaw Convention, the 1999 Montreal Convention or other treaty), as well as a carrier's own contract of carriage or tariff provisions, may be applicable to their entire journey, including any portion entirely within the countries of departure and destination. The applicable treaty governs and may limit the liability of carriers to passengers for death or personal injury, destruction or loss of, or damage to, baggage, and for delay of passengers and baggage. Additional protection can usually be obtained by purchasing insurance from a private company. Such insurance is not affected by any limitation of the carriers' liability under an international treaty. For further information please consult your airline or insurance company representative.

Incorporated terms: Your travel is subject to Cathay Pacific's General Conditions of Carriage

<https://www.cathaypacific.com/content/dam/cx/legal-and-privacy/cx-general-conditions-of-carriage-for-passengers-baggage-en-281219.pdf> and to its tariffs, including the Transborder Tariff www.cathaypacific.com/content/dam/cx/legal-and-privacy/canada/transborder-tariff/CTA-transborder-tariff-web.pdf and International Tariff www.cathaypacific.com/content/dam/cx/legal-and-privacy/canada/CTA-intl-tariff-web.pdf where applicable. All of these documents are hereby incorporated by reference into this document which forms part of your contract of carriage with us.

Terms for non-air transfer services: We act as agent for third party service providers in the sale and promotion of tickets for non-air transfer services. If you travel with any of our non-air transfer services partners, your contract for the non-air transfer service is governed by the relevant non-air transfer service provider's applicable terms and conditions of service as made available by us on their behalf and/or as set out on that non-air transfer service provider's website at the time the booking is made.

Lithium-ion batteries: Lithium-ion batteries, typically found in portable consumer electronic devices, may be dangerous and can start fires when they are not carried properly. No spare lithium-ion batteries are permitted in check-in baggage. For cabin baggage and more information about carriage of lithium-ion batteries, please visit https://www.cathaypacific.com/cx/en_AU/baggage/controlled-and-banned-items/lithium-batteries.html#:~:text=The%20maximum%20number%20of%20equipment,15%20pieces%20in%20each%20bag.

Valuables: Except for baggage carried in the course of international carriage as defined by the Warsaw or Montreal Conventions, we are not liable for any damage to articles which you include in your baggage which Cathay Pacific's General Conditions of Carriage prohibit. Articles including, but not limited to, fragile, perishable, valuable or rare items, or commercial goods and samples, business and identification documents. You can declare excess valuation on certain baggage at the airport, subject to additional fees.

Travel health information: For important health tips before your flight, please refer to our website https://www.cathaypacific.com/cx/en_US/prepare-trip/travel-and-health/before-you-fly.html prior to travelling and our inflight magazine and health videos while on board. If you have any concerns about your fitness to travel, you should consult your doctor or contact our local reservations office for advice before travelling.

Questions and further information: If you have any further questions about this document, or any other aspects of your forthcoming trip, please contact us at www.cathaypacific.com/cx/en_HK/contact-us.html.

European community regulation (EC) No.889/2002 notice - Air carrier liability for passengers and their baggage

This information notice summarises the liability rules as required by European Community legislation and as applied by Cathay Pacific in respect of international carriage. Approximate conversions from Special Drawing Rights (SDRs) to Euros are provided as a guide only and will be subject to fluctuation in currency conversion rates. Current exchange rates can be downloaded from www.imf.org/external/np/fin/data/rms_five.aspx.

Compensation in the case of death or injury

There are no financial limits to the carrier's liability for passenger death or bodily injury caused by an accident on board the aircraft or during embarking or disembarking. Where the Montreal Convention applies: For proven damages up to 128,821 SDRs (approximately EUR 154,500) the carrier will not avail itself of any defence other than contributory negligence and will not otherwise exclude or limit its liability. Above 128,821 SDRs the carrier may defend the claim if it can prove that it was not negligent or otherwise at fault. Where the Warsaw Convention applies and in all other instances: For proven damages up to 128,821 SDRs (approximately EUR 154,500) the carrier will not avail itself of any defence other than contributory negligence and will not otherwise exclude or limit its liability. Above 100,000 SDRs the carrier may defend the claim if it can prove that it took all necessary measures to avoid the damage or that it was impossible for it to take such measures. Where neither the Montreal nor the Warsaw Convention applies, different limits may be imposed by local law.

Passenger delays: In case of passenger delays, the carrier is liable for damage unless it took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or it was impossible for it to take such measures. The carrier may rely upon the defence of contributory negligence. Where the Montreal Convention applies: Liability is limited to 5,346 SDRs (approximately EUR 6,400). Where the Warsaw Convention applies: Liability is limited to 16,600 SDRs (approximately EUR 20,000). Where neither the Montreal nor the Warsaw Convention applies, different limits may be imposed by local law.

Destruction, loss, damage or delay to baggage: In relation to all baggage claims the carrier may rely upon the defence of contributory negligence. Where the Montreal Convention applies: The carrier is liable for destruction, loss or damage to checked baggage subject to applicable defences of inherent defect, quality or vice. The carrier is only liable for destruction, loss or damage to unchecked baggage if it is proven that it was at fault. The carrier is liable for damage arising out of delay to baggage unless it can prove that it took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or it was impossible for it to take such measures. Liability is limited to 1,288 SDRs (approximately EUR 1,550) per passenger for both checked and unchecked baggage. Where the Warsaw Convention applies: The carrier is liable for destruction, loss, damage or delay to baggage unless it can prove that it took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or it was impossible for it to take such measures. Liability is limited to 17 SDRs (approximately EUR 20) per kilogram of checked baggage and a total of 332 SDRs (approximately EUR 400) in the case of unchecked baggage. These limits do not apply if it is proven that the damage resulted from the carrier's reckless act or omission done with knowledge that damage would probably result. Where neither the Montreal nor the Warsaw Convention applies, different limits may be applied by local law. If local law does not specify any limits, the limits applicable are the same as those for the Warsaw Convention.

Higher limits for baggage: A passenger can benefit from a higher liability limit by making a special declaration of value at the latest at check-in and by paying a supplementary fee. Alternatively, if the value of baggage exceeds the applicable limit of liability it should be fully insured by the passenger prior to travel.

Complaints on baggage: If the baggage is damaged, delayed, lost or destroyed, the passenger must write and complain to the air carrier as soon as possible. In the case of damage to checked baggage, the passenger must write and complain within seven days and in the case of delay within twenty-one days, in both cases from the date on which the baggage was placed at the passenger's disposal.

Liability of contracting and actual carriers: If the carrier actually performing the flight is not the same as the contracting carrier, the passenger has the right to address a complaint or to make a claim for damages against either. If the name or code of a carrier is indicated on the ticket, that carrier is the contracting carrier.

Time limit for action: Any action in court to claim damages must be brought within two years from the date of arrival of the aircraft, or from the date on which the aircraft ought to have arrived.

This is a notice required by European Community Regulation (EC) No. 889/2002 amending Regulation No 2027/97: This notice cannot be used as a basis for a claim for compensation, nor to interpret the provisions of the Regulation or the Montreal or Warsaw Convention and it does not form part of the contract between the carrier and passenger.

Notice regarding the Air Passenger Protection Regulations (ARPR) by the Canada Transportation Agency: Passenger rights and airline obligations for passengers travelling on flights to, from, and within Canada, including connecting flights, may be found at https://www.cathaypacific.com/cx/en_US/prepare-trip/passenger-rights-and-regulations.html#Canada.

The carriage of certain hazardous materials, like aerosols, fireworks and flammable liquids aboard the aircraft is forbidden. If you do not understand these restrictions, further information may be obtained from us.

Dangerous goods: Some articles or substances which are capable of posing a significant risk to health, safety, property or the environment when transported by air are classified as dangerous goods and their carriage by air is prohibited. It is the responsibility of passengers to ensure that they do not carry such goods either on their person or in their baggage, otherwise they may commit a criminal offence. For more information about prohibited items, please visit https://www.cathaypacific.com/cx/en_HK/baggage/controlled-and-banned-items/controlled-items.html.

CHECKED BAGGAGE ALLOWANCE POLICY 2

In accordance with international baggage regulations, no single piece of checked baggage can weigh more than 32 kg (70 lb).

If your checked baggage is carried on flights across multiple airlines, please refer to the carrier rules set out on the following webpage to work out which airline's baggage policy applies: https://www.cathaypacific.com/cx/en_HK/baggage/check-in-baggage/carrier-rules.html. The checked baggage allowances below apply to flights where Cathay Pacific's baggage policy applies.

Your free checked baggage allowance will be different depending on your class of travel and the type of fare purchased. If you are travelling on a journey where (a) the journey includes a non-stop flight between Hong Kong and New Zealand; (b) all the flights on that journey are on Cathay Pacific or Air New Zealand only; and (c) the origin, destination and all in-between ticketed points in the journey are located in Hong Kong and New Zealand only, then Baggage Policy B below applies. For all other passengers, Baggage Policy A below applies.

Acceptance of checked baggage in excess of the below allowances will be charged excess baggage fees set out on the following webpage: http://www.cathaypacific.com/cx/en_HK/travel-information/baggage/extra-baggage-charges.html. Excess baggage fees vary depending on the routes and sectors travelled and depending on whether the fees are prepaid at least 24 hours before the commencement of your flight.

For adults and children, the sum of the length, width and height of any piece of checked baggage cannot exceed 158 cm (62 in). For infants travelling on a journey where Baggage Policy B applies, the sum of the length, width and height of any piece of checked baggage cannot exceed 158 cm (62 in). For infants travelling on all other flights (i.e. where Baggage Policy A applies), the sum of the length, width and height of any piece of checked baggage cannot exceed 115 cm (45 in).

For staff industry discount (ID) tickets please check your company policy for the relevant baggage allowances as the following baggage policies will not apply to ID tickets.
